

All those in favor signify by saying Aye; contrary, No. The Ayes have it. It is so ordered.

Committee Recommendation LB-3 is referred to the Committee of the Whole.

The Clerk will read Committee Recommendation LB-3.

READING CLERK: Committee Recommendation LB-3 by the Committee on the Legislative Branch, Francis X. Gallagher, Chairman.

A RECOMMENDATION in support of Committee Recommendation LB-3 that portions of article 3 of the new constitution dealing with the legislative branch provide for congressional redistributing procedure, continuity of government during emergencies, limitation of corporate characters to read as follows:

THE PRESIDENT: The Committee Recommendation LB-3 will be received and distributed.

Committee Recommendation JB-2. The Clerk will read the recommendation.

READING CLERK: Committee Recommendation JB-2 by the Committee on the Judicial Branch, F. De Sales Mudd, Chairman.

A RECOMMENDATION that the constitution contain a provision requiring that the full cost of the judicial system be borne by the State.

The PRESIDENT: Committee Recommendation No. JB-2 is received after November 17 requires the approval of this body for its receipt. The Chair recognizes Delegate Mudd.

DELEGATE MUDD: May I move that this rule be suspended to allow this Recommendation JB-2 of the Judicial Branch to be received.

(Whereupon, the motion was duly seconded.)

THE PRESIDENT It has been moved and seconded that approval be given to the receipt in action on Committee Recommendation JB-2.

All those in favor signify by saying Aye; contrary, No. The Ayes have it. It is so ordered.

Committee Recommendation JB-2. The Clerk will read the recommendation.

READING CLERK: Committee Recommendation JB-2, F. DeSales Mudd, Chairman.

In its memorandum supporting Committee Recommendation JB-2, the Committee on the Judicial Branch indicated that the entire cost of operating a judicial system should be borne by the State. The Committee further recommends that a provision to this effect be included in the article on state finance and taxation.

THE PRESIDENT: Committee Memorandum No. JB-2 will be received and distributed. The Chair calls your attention to the fact that both of these reports and recommendation and memorandum have been printed, have been placed on your desk today, particularly so that you could take them with you over the weekend. They will probably be on the calendar for consideration on Tuesday.

I have an announcement which I have been asked to read to you. The pages wish to thank all delegates, staff, and others, who are making their Christmas party possible. In return, the pages would like all delegates to know that they will be sure to reelect the same delegates to the next Constitutional Convention since they now have the right to vote.

(Laughter and applause.)

THE PRESIDENT: I also want to call your attention to the news summary placed on your desk this afternoon by the news service. I call your attention particularly to the fact that this is not a reproduction of a local newspaper, but of the Tulsa Tribune of Tulsa, Oklahoma. You will find it interesting reading. I think the story probably results from the fact that the Convention was visited some weeks ago by one of the members of the Oklahoma legislature who spent some four days here. Are there any other announcements by committee chairmen?

Delegate Moser.

DELEGATE MOSER: The Committee on Local Government will meet at 12:00 noon on Tuesday.

THE PRESIDENT: Delegate Mudd.

DELEGATE MUDD: Mr. Chairman, the Committee on the Judicial Branch, except for Delegate Schneider, will meet at 1:00 P.M. on Tuesday. Delegate Schneider will please meet me behind the wood shed as soon as we recess.

THE PRESIDENT: Are there any other announcements by committee chairmen?

Delegate Penniman.
